Veteran Creative Arts Festival

The Orlando VA Medical Center will host the annual Veterans Creative Arts Festival local competition on February 17, 2017. All Veterans enrolled for VA health care through the Orlando VA Medical Center and its clinics are invited to participate. All FIRST place winners will be submitted to the national competition who will then select first, second, and third place winners from entries throughout the USA. A group of select winners will be invited to attend the National Veterans Creative Arts Festival in Buffalo NY, October 23-30, 2017.

The Performing Arts competition includes 120 categories and include various aspects of music, dance, drama, and creative writing.

All entries in this category, except creative writing, need to be pre-scheduled for recording on either November 2nd, November 12th, December 7th, or December 13th.
