

Current Orlando VA PGY1 Pharmacy Residents

Justin Dorotheo, Pharm.D.
PGY1 Pharmacy Resident

Dr. Dorotheo was born and raised in South Florida and received his BS in Medicinal & Biological Chemistry and his Doctor of Pharmacy from Palm Beach Atlantic University. Dr. Dorotheo's pharmacy technician and intern experiences with professionals and patients in community pharmacy inspired him to continue pursuing growth in his pharmacy career. Justin is actively involved with Florida Pharmacy Association and Florida Society of Health-Systems Pharmacists, Phi Lambda Sigma Leadership Fraternity and Phi Delta Chi Professional Pharmacy Fraternity. His professional interests are broad and include clinical pharmacy, pharmacy operations, and pharmacy administration.

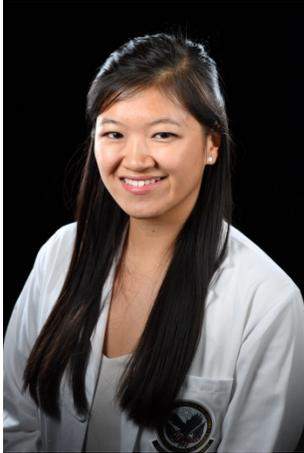

In his personal time, Justin enjoys spending time with his family doing activities such as hiking at local parks, grilling-out pool-side, watching Marvel movies, and having new adventures in and around Orlando. Justin considers every life experience and opportunity to grow, learn, and serve others. He looks forward to this new chapter in life and continuing the development his professional pharmacy career.

Uchechukwu Ezeonyebuchi, Pharm.D.
PGY1 Pharmacy Resident

Dr. Ezeonyebuchi grew up right outside our nation's capital, Washington, DC. She completed her undergraduate studies at the University of Pittsburgh where she earned a Bachelor's in Neuroscience. She later went on to obtain her Doctor of Pharmacy degree from Howard University. Her professional pharmacy interests include HIV, hepatitis C, infectious diseases, and primary care. Upon completion of her PGY1 residency, she plans to pursue a clinical pharmacy position with the Department of Veterans Affairs.

In her spare time, Uche enjoys dancing, shopping, travelling, and spending time with friends and family. She is excited about this new journey and living in Orlando.

Conny He, Pharm.D.
PGY1 Pharmacy Resident

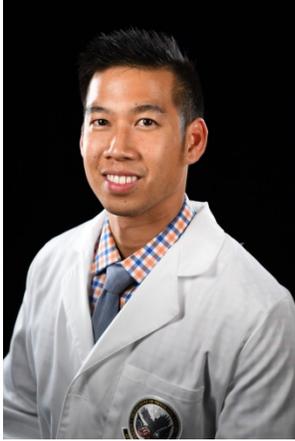

Dr. He is from Chicago, Illinois. She received her Bachelor of Science in community health from University of Illinois at Urbana-Champaign and her Doctor of Pharmacy from the University of Illinois at Chicago. Her professional interests include primary care and chronic disease state management. Upon completion of her PGY-1 residency training, she plans to pursue a clinical pharmacist position with the Department of Veterans Affairs.

In her free time, Conny enjoys traveling, trying new cuisines, and spending time with family and friends. She is looking forward to going on foodie adventures and spending this winter in the warm sunshine of Orlando!

Norman Hooten, Pharm.D.
PGY1 Pharmacy Resident

Dr. Hooten is a 20 year Veteran of the U.S. Army. He has in excess of 20 years of experience training military special operations and law enforcement personnel and 14 years of experience in Counter-Terrorism operations while serving in a U.S. Special Missions Unit. In August of 2001, Dr. Hooten retired from active duty. He briefly attended pharmacy school at Campbell University in Buies Creek North Carolina before being recalled on September 11th, 2001, back to active service in the U.S. Army. He subsequently played a critical role in the national effort to establish aviation security protocols. In 2009, he assumed duties as the Deputy Director of the King Abdullah Special Operations Training Center in Amman, Jordan and served in this capacity for 3 years. During his Army career, Dr. Hooten realized the impact that pharmacists could have in active duty military and in Veterans; he subsequently returned to pharmacy school at Palm Beach Atlantic University in West Palm Beach, Florida where he graduated in 2016. Dr. Hooten has a passion for the role pharmacists can play in the management of pain and substance use disorders in Veterans and is committed to having a positive impact in this area of pharmacy practice. After completion of residency training, Dr. Hooten plans to continue find ways to give back to the Veteran's community that has given so much to our great nation.

Thierry Phouthavong, Pharm.D.
PGY1 Pharmacy Resident

Dr. Phouthavong was born in Belgium and grew up in Iowa before moving to St. Petersburg, Florida. He received his Bachelor of Science in Biology from the University of South Florida and Doctor of Pharmacy from the University of Florida College of Pharmacy. His professional interests include primary care, pain management, and oncology. Upon completion his PGY1 residency, he plans to pursue a clinical pharmacy position with the Department of Veterans Affairs.

In his spare time, Thierry loves adventurous activities, traveling, being a foodie, and spending time with his family. His hobbies include cooking, weightlifting, and modifying his car. He is excited to be an OVAMC pharmacy resident and to have the opportunity to make a positive difference in the lives of Veterans.